

BOURDES DELGADO

Kate McGarry, originally from Hyannis, has become a national sensation as a singer and songwriter, drawing on a wide range of musical styles including roots music, musical theater, and pop music. She is one of the performers in the first annual JazzFest Falmouth, which begins at noon tomorrow and continues until 10 PM at Bigelow Marine Park at Falmouth Inner Harbor on Scranton Avenue. She will be joined by the Dizzy Gillespie All Stars, the Esperanza Spalding Quartet, the Marcus Monteiro Quartet (MM4), the Pat Ryan Group, the New Black Eagle Jazz Band, and both the Falmouth High School and the Falmouth Academy jazz bands. The event takes place, rain or shine, under the tent. Bring lawn chairs, blankets, and dress for October weather. Tickets are $25 in advance and $35 at the gate. Priority seating is also available for $50 in advance. Tickets are available at FCTV, 310 Dillingham Avenue; Cape Wind Waterfront Resort, 34 Maravista Extension; Donahue Real Estate, 850 Main Street; the Nimrod Restaurant, 100 Dillingham Avenue; and Eight Cousins Bookstore, 189 Main Street. For more information, visit www.jazzfestfalmouth.org/.